PLAY HARD HOOPS BASKETBALL CAMP PHILOSOPHY

Dedicated to teaching the game of basketball while stressing sportsmanship, teamwork, enthusiasm and a positive attitude on and off the court. Play Hard Hoops feels privileged to be in the position of educating young people through the greatest game in the world – basketball. The goal is for each player to have a great time regardless of age or ability and to foster an encouraging environment where players are excited to learn and improve each day.

HOOPS EDUCATION BASKETBALL CAMP TESTIMONIALS

“I hope this finds you well. My son had an incredible experience the week he spent at your camp! He began the first day of the week very apprehensive; He was overwhelmed by the number of kids and wasn't sure this camp was going to be for him, BUT a Coach took notice of Josh's hesitant behavior and kindly came over to us and within a few minutes of talking to Josh, he was shooting hoops and didn't even look back to say good-bye to me. The confidence that Josh gained over the week was remarkable and every single person on your team was fabulous!”

Play Hard Hoops helped my son in a way that will make him a better man in the future. Sportsmanship, courage, teamwork and discipline are just some of the characteristics and qualities that you instill in the boys and girls that are a part of Play Hard Hoops.

-Erica Thompson

“As a former camper myself, I can say that part of who I am is because of this camp and I love being able to come back and teach these kids every summer.”

-Ben Johnson - Hoops Education Basketball Camp Coach

“It is refreshing to find people who are more concerned with developing good people. Basketball has given our son confidence that he had lacked before. His success on the court has transferred directly to his success in school and to a new found outgoing nature with his peers. Your great coaches made our kids feel great about their abilities. It is such a boost to a child's self-esteem.”
