

PHH Mini Camp Outdoor Training – Policies and Procedures Summer 2020

We appreciate your choosing Play Hard to conduct a mini camp outdoor training. If you're anything like us, the prospect of building a routine and getting kids active post "quarantine" is very exciting but of course difficult as we adjust to today's environment. We look forward to building a positive experience combined with high instruction.

With that in mind, below is a detailed description of the safety steps we will be taking to resume our programming this June and in the summer ahead. Consistent with the State of Illinois and City of Chicago's recently announced phased reopening guidelines, we will be adhering to the following protocols at all of our small group mini-camp outdoor workout sessions:

PROGRAM INFORMATION/SAFETY PROTOCOLS

- Small groups in an outdoor setting – we will remain under the gathering limit of 10, as these workouts are structured for 3-5 participants along with one PHH coach
- Players will not be permitted to participate without a signed updated liability waiver provided by Play Hard Hoops; NO Exceptions
- Social distancing strategies will be implemented – coaches will set up, instruct, and demonstrate the drills at over 10 ft away, and if teaching during some moments where they get closer, a face covering will be on remaining 6 feet distanced
- No Competitive Drills where players will play 1 on 1, 2 on 2, 3 on 3 until continued ease in restrictions (any change to this will have an addendum to the liability waiver signed)
- No equipment will be shared - players are expected to bring their own basketball, water bottles, cones and any other equipment they may need. Players & coaches will only use their own balls throughout the drills, and we will continue to make sure social distance guidelines can be in place through instruction
- While Play Hard Hoops will assign a coach for groups, PHH can replace a coach for any particular session; we will provide information though of any coach changes (all PHH Coaches that will be included in mini-camp training will be listed on the website)
- Rescheduling Appointments – Due to rain or any unforeseen circumstances that the program cannot be run during its scheduled time or day, the coach with the help of PHH Administration will reschedule (potential to reschedule for weekend days that work for the group or coach) – PHH must receive 24 hours notice to reschedule a session that is canceled by the families or the session will be counted as part of your package – this is to protect our coaches who are scheduling their day based on appointments
- The program will begin when the coach receives confirmation via text from the host family that the group is ready. The coach will not exit his/her car until he/she receives this confirmation.
- When the program is finished, the PHH Coach will text host family that he/she will be leaving the premises

PHH Mini Camp Outdoor Training – Policies and Procedures Summer 2020

We want to thank all of the host families for allowing PHH to bring small group camp training to your home. With our appreciation, we also understand the importance of being on the same page, respecting the home, rules of the host family and that being reciprocated to the PHH coach.

HOST FAMILY RESPONSIBILITIES/ SAFETY PROTOCOLS

- Host must provide phone # to communicate via text with PHH Coach
- Hand hygiene/sanitizer should be available before, after, and during sessions as needed
- Host family is responsible for enforcement of social distance guidelines for the participants; includes but not limited to: entering the house, wearing of masks, 6 feet of distance through instruction, any other rules of the house of the host family
- Host family is responsible for any behavior inside the house and coach only enters for purposes of using a bathroom with a mask in place.
- Host family will provide a bathroom and any first aid equipment needed for the participants and will apply first aid if necessary
- Host families are responsible for drop off – pick up coordination with all participants
- Any other protocols breaking social distance parameters for the participants are at the discretion of the host family in accordance with all families in the group

Rest assured, we are extraordinarily committed to providing a positive and influential small group camp experience; all with the top priority of ensuring the ongoing health and safety of our players, staff and families. Thank you for your support and understanding. We are confident that together, we can capably navigate these unprecedented and challenging circumstances.

Thank you and we will see you soon in the alley, driveway, home court soon!
